

STARTINGSTRONG

Independent Education Union of Australia NSW/ACT Branch

June 2017

Hello

IEU membership provides you with support throughout your career. A strong union can advocate for teachers' status, pay and conditions, and provide individual support.

So come and see us when we are on campus and tell your friends about us too!

John Quessy

Secretary, Independent Education Union of Australia NSW/ACT Branch

Read the latest from your Union

Steps to Success event

It's that time of year again! IEU is hosting a free seminar - Steps to Success. It's the best event for preservice teachers to find out what you need to know to make sure you get that job.

Write a winning resume

...and nail that that job!
Have you almost finished your course? Are you already teaching casually? If you are, you probably want to brush up your CV so that it gives you the best chance of getting a position at the school of your choice.

Take a look

Read more

What did you say?

Want to win a $50 gift voucher? IEU wants to know what we do well and what should we be doing more of? We want to hear from you.

Take a look

Things I wish I knew

... before I started teaching!
The first year of teaching - whether it is temporary, permanent or casual - can be a real blur of late nights, early mornings and more meetings than you might imagine.

Read more

Introducing Keith Heggart

IEU has staff dedicated to helping students and early career teachers navigate the complex world of teaching and accreditation. Organiser Keith Heggart is working with Professional Officer Karen Forbes and is available to provide advice and support to student and teacher members.

Keith is a former high school teacher who has worked in the Catholic, public and independent sector. He has also worked in the UK. Keith has been a senior leader in schools, as well as a coordinator in charge of inducting new teachers. You can contact Keith or a member of the PD team here: accreditation@ieu.asn.au

