

Teachers r Teachers

IEU - the Union for early childhood teachers

October 2019

Greetings

Here's our final Teachers r Teachers for 2019 and it's packed with information about the profession, and how IEU fights for you. From industrial news, to academic research plus formal submissions regarding ongoing federal funding, this enews will keep you up to date.

As always, we encourage you to share with your colleagues and remind them of the benefits of Union membership, so we can continue building our strength in the sector.

John Quessy

Secretary, Independent Education Union of Australia NSW/ACT Branch

Read the latest from your Union

Highly Accomplished - Lead Teacher pilot

NESA are looking for participants for a second cohort of early childhood teachers for a pilot program starting in March 2020.

Take a look

New Agreement for Uniting Care Centres

The IEU has finalised negotiations for a new agreement for Uniting Care Early Learning Services. This agreement will cover 55 services.

Read more

IEU submission to UANP Review

IEU has made a formal submission to the independent review of the national funding arrangements that support access to quality early childhood education for all children in the year before full time school.

Take a look

Professional registration survey

Academics from University of Sydney are conducting a survey on professional registration for early childhood teachers who work with children in the birth to five years age group.

Read more

WAITING...

ERO and Work Value case decision expected late 2019 - early 2020

