

HEADLINES

Independent Education Union of Australia NSW/ACT Branch

March 2018

Hello,

Once again, the 2017 Australian Principals' Health Survey has shown many of you are under stress. Getting involved with your Union is the best way to improve your working life.

Feel free to share this enews with your colleagues.

John Quessy

Secretary, Independent Education Union of Australia NSW/ACT Branch

Read the latest from your Union

Principals under stress

The IEU thanks its principal members for their participation in the longitudinal Australian Principals' Health and Wellbeing Survey.

Take a look

Get involved

You can address issues of workplace stress and overwork by becoming an active member of the IEU and attending Principals Sub Branch.

Read more

Save the date

School leaders are invited to attend the IEU's Woman's Conference 'Changing the Rules for Working Women and for our Students in their Future Workplaces' on Friday 24 August.

Take a look

NESA still struggling

Principals may be aware that NESA is still having problems processing teachers' accreditation.

Read more

IEU gives teachers and support staff access to...

- ✓ better pay and conditions
- ✓ a professional voice: through representation, social media and advocacy
- ✓ industrial advice and support
- ✓ support and payment recovery: in the last five years IEU recovered nearly $20 million for members
- ✓ PD on a range of topics helping teachers to keep accreditation up to date
- ✓ a strong network with industrially and socially aware colleagues locally and globally
- ✓ representation in industrial tribunals and courts on work related matters
- ✓ publications: professional journals plus newspapers
- ✓ teacher exchange: spend a year working overseas
- ✓ member benefits: Teachers Health Fund, NGS Super, ME Bank and Teachers Mutual Bank services, discounts through Union Shopper.

JOIN THE UNION
TODAY