

HEADLINES

Independent Education Union of Australia NSW/ACT Branch

March 2019

Hello,

The IEU offers great opportunities for principals and school leadership teams to get together and discuss issues that matter to them and advocate for real change. With the state election this Saturday 23 March, make sure you check out the IEU's key 'asks' for the next NSW government to make an informed vote.

Feel free to share this enews with your colleagues.

John Quessy

Secretary, Independent Education Union of Australia NSW/ACT Branch

Read the latest from your Union

Annual wellbeing survey

A nationwide survey found one in three Australian school leaders was physically attacked and one in two experienced threats of violence at work.

Take a look

No 'them and us'

New principal Belinda Burton said serving as an IEU Rep for more than 20 years has been no impediment to her promotion.

Read more

Supervision training

Supervising accreditation of early career teachers? New courses for you.

Take a look

Principals' Sub Branch update

Principals' Sub Branch AGM was held on 9 February, with a group of enthusiastic principals elected to leadership positions.

Read more

