

IEU Special Event

A panel on the teaching of consent in schools

When: Saturday 19 June 2021, 11.00am

Where: Aerial Centre, UTS

Building 10, Level 7, 235 Jones Street

Ultimo (just a five-minute walk from Central Station)

RSVP essential: please RSVP by Wednesday 16 June 2021 to helen@ieu.asn.au

Cost: this event is for IEU members only and is free.

The panel

Dr Briony Scott

Dr Briony Scott has been Principal of Wenona School, North Sydney, since 2011. In recent months she has appeared on the ABC's Q&A current affairs talk show discussing consent and respect for girls and women, been interviewed on Radio National and been published in the Sydney Morning Herald.

Brandon Jack

Brandon Jack played AFL for the Sydney Swans from 2013 to 2017. He attended Oakhill College in Castle Hill. Brandon's first book, 28: A memoir of football, addiction, art, masculinity and love will be published in August. Brandon visits schools to talk to students about masculinity, equality, consent and respectful relationships.

Phoebe Craddock-Lovett

A member of the IEU Executive, Phoebe Craddock-Lovett teaches mathematics at Marist Catholic College North Shore. Phoebe takes a strong interest in teacher wellbeing and the issues early career teachers face.

This event is part of the IEUA NSW/ACT Branch Council. If you would like to attend other sessions, you are welcome. Please contact helen@ieu.asn.au for information about the agenda.

