

March 2018

Hi,

IEU provides many forms of support to early childhood teachers, including free online NESAs Registered professional development via the TLN Network. To find out more, read this enews.

John Qessy
Secretary, Independent Education Union of Australia NSW/ACT Branch

Read the latest from your Union

Help for refugee children

Refugee and asylum seeker children will now have better access to early childhood education in Queensland.

Play based learning success

Research shows play based learning enhances children's academic and developmental learning outcomes.

Take a look

Read more

Degree educated teachers are better

The benefits of degree educated early childhood teachers are being promoted again.

Equal remuneration case

IEUA's case for equal remuneration for early childhood teachers comes before the Fair Work Commission in July.

Take a look

Read more

Join ECS Council

Want to make a real difference to your professional life and that of others in the early childhood field?

Your centre's TAA

In late 2017, NESAs wrote to single service and linked service of up to 10 centres asking them to nominate NESAs as a Teacher Accreditation Authority.

Take a look

Read more

IEU membership and PD access

IEU has provided all early childhood members free access to Teacher Learning Network's comprehensive range of online NESAs Registered PD. To activate your TLN membership, search your emails for a link sent to you. If you can't find it, email the IEU at pd@ieu.asn.au

IEU gives teachers and support staff access to...

- ✓ better pay and conditions
- ✓ a professional voice: through representation, social media and advocacy
- ✓ industrial advice and support
- ✓ support and payment recovery: in the last five years IEU recovered nearly $20 million for members
- ✓ PD on wide range of topics: teachers, keep your accreditation up to date
- ✓ a strong network: industrial and socially aware teachers and support staff in your workplace, region, state, Australia and globally
- ✓ representation in industrial tribunals and courts on work related matters
- ✓ publications: professional journals plus newspapers
- ✓ teacher exchange: spend a year working overseas
- ✓ member benefits: Teachers Health Fund, NGS Super, ME Bank and Teachers Mutual Bank services, discounts through Union Shopper.

JOIN THE UNION TODAY