

Independent Education Union of Australia NSW/ACT Branch

October 2019

Greetings and welcome to the final edition of Headlines for 2019. You'll find it packed with information about the profession, and how IEU fights for you. From industrial news, to academic research, to first hand experiences of members, this enews will keep you up to date.

As always, we encourage you to share with your colleagues and remind them of the benefits of Union membership, so we can continue building our strength in the sector.

John Quessy
Secretary, Independent Education Union of Australia NSW/ACT Branch

Read the latest from your Union

Exploring co-principalship

Two principal members discuss their roles and experience trialling co-principalship in their school and identify the key actions that ensured the success of the experiment.

Bullying and harassment

The IEUA is participating in a La Trobe University research project on Teachers' Experiences of Bullying and Harassment in Australian Schools, following on from a 2018 exploratory survey.

Take a look

Read more

Catholic systemic principals' EA

The IEU has formally lodged a claim for a new Enterprise Agreement with CCER and continues to meet with principal members regarding ongoing negotiations

Advice for next generation of teachers

Prospective teachers heard first hand what principals look for during interviews, at the IEU's preservice teacher's day recently.

Take a look

Read more

