

HEADLINES

Independent Education Union of Australia NSW/ACT Branch

October 2017

Hello,

Welcome to your final edition of Headlines for 2017. It outlines various ways the Union is supporting you. Feel free to forward Headlines to your colleagues, it provides those in leadership positions with valuable information.

John Qussy

Secretary, Independent Education Union of Australia NSW/ACT Branch

Read the latest from your Union

Thanks for your help

Appreciation goes to Catholic systemic sector principals for their understanding and support during the current negotiations for the next enterprise agreement for teachers and general employees.

Take a look

Principals' wellbeing

Research for the Australian Principal Health and Wellbeing Survey 2017 is now underway.

Read more

Your meetings

The IEU looks forward to meeting with principal members at forthcoming gatherings.

Take a look

Your views wanted

Principals are invited to contribute to the IEU's submission to the panel conducting the Review to Achieve Excellence in Australian Schools by Thursday 2 November.

Read more

Bridging the gap

Jo Gillespie is new to the IEU, becoming Aspect Riverina School Principal after a move from Queensland.

Jo said the Union plays an important role for principals. "Being a principal can be complicated. The Union is able to bridge the gap and negotiate on our behalf as a collective".

"I would recommend any principal get involved. Having communications like Headlines that provide us with information specific to our roles is useful."

Having attended a number of IEU PIPs and a Council meeting. Jo said "everyone I've come into contact with has been approachable and ready to offer support and advice."