INDEPENDENT EDUCATION UNION OF AUSTRALIA NEW SOUTH WALES/ACT BRANCH

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. STATEMENT OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The financial statements are general purpose financial statements and have been prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards and Interpretations issued by the Australian Accounting Standards Board (AASB) that apply for the reporting period and the Fair Work (Registered Organisation) Act 2009. For the purpose of preparing the general purpose financial statements, the Independent Education Union of Australia New South Wales/ACT Branch is a not-for-profit entity.

The financial statements have been prepared on an accrual basis and in accordance with the historical cost, except for certain assets and liabilities at measured at fair value, as explained in the accounting policies below. Historical cost is generally based on the fair values of the consideration given in exchange for assets. Except where stated, no allowance is made for the effect of changing prices on the results or the financial position. The financial statements are presented in Australian dollars.

The following is a summary of the significant accounting policies adopted by the Independent Education Union of Australia New South Wales/ACT Branch in preparation of the accounts:

- (a) Income from membership contributions is accounted for on an accrual basis and is recorded as revenue in the year to which it relates.

No contributions were received during the year.

- (b) No provision for income tax is necessary as the Independent Education Union of Australia New South Wales/ACT Branch is exempt from income tax under section 50.1 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997.

- (c) Property, plant and equipment. Each class of property, plant and equipment is at cost carried less, where applicable, any accumulated depreciation and any impairment in value. The assets' residual values and useful lives are reviewed and adjusted, if appropriate, at each balance date.

The Branch has no property, plant or equipment during and at the end of the year.

- (d) Employee benefits. A liability is recognised for benefits accruing to employees in respect of wages and salaries, annual leave, long service leave and termination benefits when it is probable that settlement will be required and they are capable of being measured reliably.

There were no employees during the year.

2. Section 272 Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009

In accordance with the requirements of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009, the attention of members is drawn to the provisions of subsections (1) to (3) of section 272, which reads as follows:

Information to be provided to members or the General Manager of Fair Work Australia:

- (1) A member of a reporting unit, or the General Manager of Fair Work Australia, may apply to the reporting unit for specified prescribed information in relation to the reporting unit to be made available to the person making the application.
- (2) The application must be in writing and must specify the period within which, and the manner in which, the information is to be made available. The period must not be less than 14 days after the application is given to the reporting unit.
- (3) A reporting unit must comply with an application made under subsection (1).

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the members of Independent Education Union of Australia New South Wales / ACT Branch

Report on the Financial Report

We have audited the accompanying financial report of Independent Education Union of Australia New South Wales/ACT Branch which comprises the Income Statement, Balance Sheet, Statement of Changes in Equity and Statement of Cash Flow, accompany notes to these financial statements and the Committee of Management's statement for the year ended 31 December 2013.

Responsibility for the Financial Report

The Committee of Management and the General Secretary of the Independent Education Union of Australia New South Wales /ACT Branch are responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial report in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards (including the Australian Accounting Interpretations) and the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009.

This responsibility includes establishing and maintaining internal controls relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the financial report that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error; selecting and applying appropriate accounting policies; and making accounting estimates that are reasonable in the circumstances.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial report based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards and with reference to the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009. These Auditing Standards require that we comply with relevant ethical requirements relating to audit engagements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial report is free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial report. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial report in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control.

An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the Committee of Management and the General Secretary, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Independence

In conducting our audit, we have complied with the independence requirements of Australian professional ethical pronouncement and the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009.

Auditor's Opinion

We state that the financial report has been audited and in our opinion the financial report of Independent Education Union of Australia New South Wales/ACT Branch complies with the relevant Australian Accounting Standards

We report that we have inspected and audited the accounting records of the Independent Education Union of Australia New South Wales / ACT Branch in relation to the financial year ending 31 December 2013 and report that in our opinion satisfactorily accounting records were kept by the Branch in relation to the period, including:

- 1) records of the sources and nature of the income of the Branch (including income from members);
- 2) records of the nature and purposes of the expenditure of the Branch;
- 3) all information, being information which was reasonably wanted for the purpose of this audit, which was required and sought by me or by any person authorised by me for the purpose of the audit, was provided; and
- 4) in relation to recovery of wages activity, no activity of recovery occurred in the financial year.

In our opinion the financial report is presented fairly in accordance with applicable Australian Accounting Standards and the requirements imposed by Part 3 of Chapter 8 of the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009;

- 1) the financial affairs of the Branch as at the end of the financial year; and
- 2) the income and expenditure, and any surplus/(deficit) of the Branch for the year; and that the management's use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the Branch's financial statements is appropriate.

We understand that to the extent that there was any deficiency, failure or shortcoming in relation to the matters referred to above, I must report particulars and that those particulars, if any, which form part of this report, are attached.

We declare that the auditor is an approved auditor as provided in the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 and is a fellow of The Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia with a current Public Practice Certificate.
