

Teachers & Teachers

IEU - the Union for early childhood teachers

July 2017

Hi

How is your Union working for you? It's providing you with free professional development, fighting for you to get equal pay and providing you with inspiring annual conferences. Let your colleagues know what they're missing if they do not join the Union.

John Quesy

Secretary, Independent Education Union of Australia NSW/ACT Branch

Read the latest from your Union

Members-free NESA registered PD!

Early childhood members benefit greatly from IEU membership through access to professional development courses through the Teachers Learning Network (TLN).

Take a look

IEU conference: Myth Busters

This year's IEU Early Childhood Conference is all about challenging the things we know are wrong.

Read more

International news

Australia is lagging behind progress on early childhood education compared to many other countries.

Take a look

Fight for equal pay continues

The IEU lodged an application for Equal Remuneration Orders (EROs) for teachers in early childhood services in 2013.

Read more

Early Childhood Educator of the Year

KU Teacher and IEU member Almut Weiler Anderson (centre) has been named Early Childhood Educator of the Year at the 2017 Australian Family Early Education and Care Awards. Read her story in the next issue of Newsmonth.