MYVALUES MYWORK

IEUA NSW/ACT 2019 SUPPORT STAFF CONFERENCE

Friday, 13 September
Mercure Sydney

Our values are a fundamental part of who we are - our guiding principles. The 2019 Support Staff Conference will explore how our core values represent our highest priorities and are deeply held driving forces. How they determine not only what we think, but what we buy, the friends we make, the work we do and the organisations we work for and belong to.

Participants will get to share in the experience of our keynote speaker Richard Boele and have an opportunity to reflect on their own values and motivations - both personal and professional.

Richard Boele, KPMG Partner for Human Rights and Social Impact Services, will share his personal journey, having spent most of his life, both professionally and personally, championing the causes of the vulnerable and under-represented. Speaking candidly on his personal experiences and how he has forged a global career that enables him to maintain strong personal integrity through an ongoing commitment to his personal values, and how he sees the impact of these core principles in action every day.

Kristyn Crossfield will work with participants on unpacking traditional ideas of leadership and how self-leadership is linked to strong values. Knowing our values, we can let them guide how we think, how we behave and the actions we take.

A selection of smaller group workshops will be offered which build on the earlier sessions. Workshops include:

- Values for the common good
- Bringing out your inner superhero
- Rediscovering your WHY and understanding its purpose
- Turning values into strengths
- Reality vs Rhetoric
