

HEADLINES

Independent Education Union of Australia NSW/ACT Branch

November 2023

Dear Raghuram

Welcome to your final edition of Headlines for 2023. May we take this opportunity to thank you for your support as an IEU principal member.

In this issue we explore the challenges faced by school leaders on a daily basis, and how the union can help.

Long-time Principals' Organiser Pam Smith reflects on her many years assisting school leaders, and we provide an update on enterprise agreement negotiations.

Finally we look at recent NESA policy changes which seek to alleviate the workload of principals.

Carol Matthews

Secretary, Independent Education Union of Australia NSW/ACT Branch

Latest news from your union

Offensive behaviour: a daily challenge

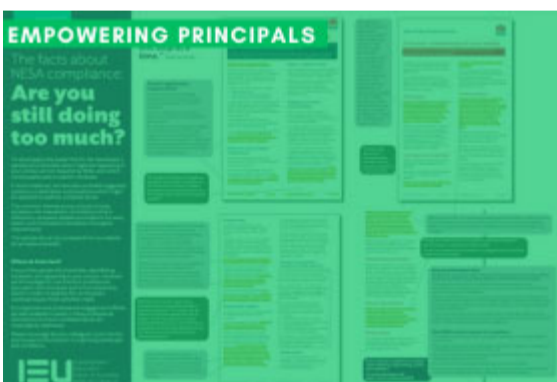

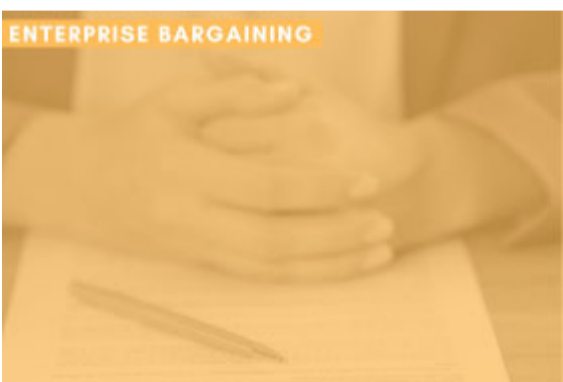

Principals have endured extraordinary levels of stress and disruption in the past few years and, understandably, their mental health has been impacted.

Read more

Farewell to Pam Smith

Many of you may know Pam Smith, retiring Principals' Organiser. Pam reflects on her time working with school leaders.

Read more

Enterprise bargaining

Bargaining for Catholic systemic principals is progressing well.

Read more

Empowering principals

Recent NESA policy changes streamline the accreditation and professional development processes. These reforms, advocated for by the IEU, seek to alleviate the workload of principals.

Read more

Independent Education Union NSW/ACT

FOLLOW US

