At each triennial election, the Branch Secretary will provide to the Returning Officer a certificate showing the percentage of women financial members at 31 December in the preceding year. - (b) Council, in determining the boundaries and size of any sub-branch, shall take into account the size, area and location of sub-branches and the location of the major employing authorities and the area covered by such authorities.
- (c) A new sub-branch may be formed by Council in one of two ways:-
- (i) Council shall on the recommendation of the Branch Executive have the power to establish a new sub-branch consisting of members employed in workplaces or resident within a particular district or on the basis of "natural grouping" rather than on a geographical basis. Such a sub-branch may be state-wide or formed on a district basis;
- OR
- (ii) Council shall have the power to establish a new sub-branch upon the receipt of a written request passed by a majority of Union Representatives present at a special meeting called for that purpose and where such Representatives as support the request represent 400 or more members respectively, who have previously voted in favour of such establishment at their Chapter meeting.

Such new sub-branch shall be constituted on the date its first general meeting is held in accordance with the resolution of Council, at which meeting its first committee shall be elected.

A decision to create a new sub-branch should preferably be implemented shortly before the expiry of the term of office of Council delegates. However, the following procedure applies where a new sub-branch is created during the term of office of Council delegates. The new offices of Delegate to Council for the new sub-branch shall be filled by election within a period of three months in accordance with Rule 10, Election of Branch Executive and Officials. The elected Delegate of a sub-branch affected by the creation of a new sub - branch shall remain a member of Council until the expiry of their term of office provided that they are still members of the same sub-branch. Where the creation of a new sub-branch has the effect that an elected Council Delegate of another sub-branch is transferred into the new sub-branch, then he or she shall be deemed to be Council Delegate of the new sub-branch for a period of three months until an election for the new office is held in accordance with Rule 10, Election of Branch Executive and Officials, at which time he or she shall cease to be eligible to hold the office. Delegate positions for existing sub-branches (that is, that are not newly created offices) that are required to be filled as a result of the creation of a new sub-branch shall be filled pursuant to Rule 11, Casual Vacancy.

- (d) A sub-branch may be closed by Council if, in the view of Council, it is considered appropriate and provided that appropriate consultation with members of the sub-branch has occurred. Any such adjustments shall not affect the eligibility to hold office of any elected Delegate to Council from an affected branch until the expiry of the term of office of the elected Delegate or Delegates.

If a sub-branch has a membership of less than 300 members as at 31st December in any year, then Council may review at any time whether the sub-branch is functioning effectively and whether the sub-branch should continue to exist.

In making a decision to close a sub-branch pursuant to this paragraph, Council should consider a range of factors including the membership of the sub-branch, attendance at sub-branch general meetings and the convenience or inconvenience to members if they were to be allocated to a different sub-branch.

- (e) Council may adjust the boundaries of sub-branches from time to time. Any such adjustments shall not affect the eligibility to hold office of any elected Delegate to Council from an affected sub-branch until the expiry of the term of office of the elected Delegate or Delegates.
- (f) The sub-branch general meeting shall be the meeting of members and Union Representatives at the local level. The role of the sub-branch general meeting shall be to:
 - (i) inform members of union business;
 - (ii) enable members to exchange information about local issues;
 - (iii) consider any professional or industrial matter it deems appropriate;

- (g) Where a Union Representative is unable to attend a meeting, he or she may appoint an alternate delegate who is a financial member from the same Chapter. A quorum for a sub-branch general meeting shall be three Union Representatives (an alternate delegate appointed by a Union Representative shall be counted as a Union Representative for this purpose).
- (h) Sub-branch general meetings will be held at least three times each year and the first such meeting in any year shall be the sub-branch annual general meeting which shall be held in Term 1. Special meetings of the sub - branch may be called by the committee at any time. Not less than two weeks written notice must be given of any such meeting to each Chapter of the sub-branch and to the Secretary.
- (i) A meeting of members of a sub-branch, other than a sub-branch general meeting, may be called in accordance with the following:
 - (i) The sub - branch committee may, in consultation with the Secretary, call a meeting of all members of the sub-branch or of a section of membership of the sub-branch to discuss a particular topic or topics;
 - (ii) The sub-branch committee shall call a meeting of all members of the sub-branch on receipt of a request signed by 20% of members of the sub-branch or by 30% of Union Representatives in the sub-branch;
 - (iii) Notice of a meeting called pursuant to this rule shall be given in accordance with the requirements for sub-branch general meetings.

- (j) The sub-branch annual general meeting shall elect a sub-branch committee, comprising a sub-branch President, sub-branch Secretary, sub-branch Deputy President and a possible four additional committee members. - (i) the member is at the time of nomination a Union Representative, Chapter Chairperson or Chapter Secretary, or a member nominated by the Chapter at a Chapter meeting and such nomination has been presented in writing at the sub-branch meeting; or
 - (ii) the member is, or has been in the two years prior to the time of nomination, a member of a sub-branch committee; or
 - (iii) the nomination of the member is moved and seconded by two Union Representatives of the sub-branch;

Delegates to Council may stand for election to one of the positions on the sub-branch committee as listed above. If he or she does not stand or is not elected to such a position by the sub-branch annual general meeting, the Delegate shall be deemed in any event to be an additional member of the sub-branch committee.

The election of the sub-branch committee shall be conducted by a Returning Officer (who shall not be a candidate) elected at the sub-branch annual general meeting. The Returning Officer shall conduct the elections in the order in which the positions appear in the first sentence of paragraph (j) above, and the new committee shall take office from the end of the meeting. A casual vacancy in the sub-branch committee shall be filled by the committee as it considers appropriate, provided a report is provided to the next sub-branch general meeting.

- (l) Neither a sub-branch nor its committee nor its members generally nor any of them, may speak or act or purport to speak or act, on behalf of the sub-branch without a specific consent to that effect from the Secretary or President of the Branch.
- (m) Any meeting expenses, travel expenses or other out-of-pocket expenses incurred by a member of the sub-branch in relation to sub-branch affairs shall be reimbursed by the Branch provided such expense is within the guidelines determined from time to time by the Secretary or the Branch Executive.
