What your union can do for you

Regular updates

Keep an eye out for email communications from the IEU and follow us on four key social media platforms: Facebook, X (Twitter), Instagram, LinkedIn.

Finished studying?

We can answer your questions about working in independent schools, Catholic schools, early childhood education centres and ELICOS colleges.

Landed the job?

Congratulations! Update to teacher membership to be fully covered in your job. We can help you understand your contract, check your classification, and ensure your pay is accurate.

How union membership works for you

Better pay and working conditions through collective bargaining

Your union collectively bargains for enterprise agreements to secure better pay rises, allowances and improved entitlements at work, such as personal/carer's leave, paid parental leave and long service leave.

Industrial advice, advocacy and representation

We provide advice and support in dealing with matters relating to your employment and workplace rights. Where necessary, we represent members in tribunals such as the Fair Work Commission or the courts.

Assistance with child protection and workplace investigations

Provision of crucial advice and representation during workplace investigations for matters which include child protection allegations, performance issues or conduct and other workplace conflict.

Return from workers compensation and workplace health and safety

We promote and uphold your health and safety at work. We also provide assistance with the return-to-work process following absence due to workplace injuries. We offer a referral service for advice sought relating to workers compensation claims.

Accreditation advice and professional development

- Access assistance and advice about all matters relating to teacher accreditation and registration, including suspension or revocation of teacher accreditation or registration
- Access a range of free and discounted face-to-face, online, and on-demand PD.

Keeping you connected

Stay informed on industrial and professional issues affecting you or your workplace through:

- regular email updates and our website (ieu.asn.au)
- print publications: Newsmoth (workplace news and views); IE magazine (professional journal); and Bedrock (early childhood education and care)
- social media: follow us on Facebook, Instagram, X (Twitter) and LinkedIn.

More benefits

Join the IEU and unlock the benefits of belonging to a strong, professional network dedicated to teachers and support staff. Here's what membership offers:

- A powerful professional voice: gain advocacy and representation locally, statewide and nationally, ensuring your voice is heard on the issues that affects the teaching profession.
- Protecting your rights: the IEU has successfully recovered $14 million for members in the past six years.
- Be part of a strong education community network: connect with passionate, socially conscious teachers and support staff in your workplace, region, and across Australia, with global connections.

Join today and experience the strength and support of the IEU.
