What the union can do for you

Be part of the professional voice of teachers.

Know your rights and responsibilities at work.

Enterprise agreements, salaries and conditions

The IEU negotiates enterprise agreements that secure your pay rises and conditions, including sick leave, carer's leave, parental leave and long service leave.

Industrial advice, support and representation

The IEU has workplace rights specialists who advise and support members on a wide range of employment issues.

Child protection and workplace investigations

The IEU provides crucial advice and representation during workplace investigations such as child protection allegations, performance issues and workplace conflict.

Workers compensation and workplace health and safety

The union advocates for health and safety at work. We provide workers compensation advice and representation where required.

Accreditation advice and professional development

The union provides advice on teacher accreditation and registration, and we offer a range of free and discounted face-to-face and online professional development.

The IEU also provides:

- a professional voice: through representation and advocacy to employers, government and policymakers, as well as in mainstream media and on social media
- payment recovery: the IEU recovered more than $4.4 million in underpayments to members in 2025
- community and connection: opportunities to network with engaged education professionals in your workplace and region.

Finished studying?

We can answer your questions about working in independent schools, Catholic schools, early childhood education and care centres and ELICOS colleges.

Employment advice

The IEU offers information on fine-tuning your CV and obtaining employment in the non-government schools sector.

Landed the job?

Congratulations! We can help you understand your contract, check your classification, and ensure your pay is accurate.

Update to teacher membership to be fully covered in your job: email us at membership@ieu.asn.au or call us on 8202 8900 (press 1).

The IEU offers three months free membership to first-year-out teachers.
